INVOCATION AND CALL TO WORSHIP

John Schumacher-Hardy

(Inspired by Romans 12:2, John 17:14-19)

We are called to be people of faith in the midst of the world,

And so we mix our worship and our work, our faith and our life.

We gather here as people who live in the world and yet

We gather as people who have been called to see the world from a different viewpoint.

God has called us together, God has called us to be part of a community.

God challenges us to consider questions of priority

as we engage with the world.

In this time together,

May God open our hearts, minds and eyes,

Allowing us to see deeper, helping us to live in the world while still offering a challenge to the ways of the world.

We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Prayer Song: We Are His Hands

We are His hands to touch the world around us.

We are His feet to go where He may lead.

And we are His love burning in the darkness.

We are His love shining in the night.

We are His eyes to see the need in others.

We are His voice to tell of His return.

And we are His love burning in the darkness.

We are His love shining in the night.

Prayer: Jack Creighton
